Purpose:

of this study was to identify and suggest Government of the Punjab (GoPb), Pakistan that how to better utilize evaluation findings.

Objective:

“to suggest way forward for improved utilization of evaluation findings”. It

Methodology:

Paradigm: “Interpretivist”,

Research approach: “qualitative”,

Sampling Method: “purposive”,

Data tool: semi structured interview guide was used to collect data through face to face interviews,

Analysis: Thematic analysis was employed.

FINDINGS

- ▶ No enabling culture for research, academic rigour, and publications;
- ▶ Primary data is collected, analysed, and used in most evaluations undermine the use of secondary data where it deemed appropriate;
- ▶ Evaluators faced challenges of accountability and authority in implementing evaluation findings
- ▶ Findings not circulated on social media illustrates no use of social media
- ▶ Evaluation Committee Meeting (ECM), forum where evaluation findings are deliberated between evaluators and implementers and decisions are made based on evaluation findings and recommendations, was found weak to implement their decisions.
- ▶ Evaluator bias due to subjective nature of evaluation

RECOMMENDATIONS

- ▶ Consistent performance measurement,
- ▶ Evaluation results may be published in academic journals,
- ▶ Published material can take many forms; research paper, working paper, academic manuscript, policy brief, and concise reports,
- ▶ Wider dissemination will ensure transparency, accountability, and compliance
- ▶ Social media forums; Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Instagram,
- ▶ ECM maybe chaired by more senior rank officer that resonates with the hierarchy of department Secretaries.
